

ADMISSION PROCEDURES AND APPLICATION

The Call Me MISTER Program is collaboration between Clemson University and four historically black colleges (Benedict College, Claflin University, Morris College, South Carolina State University, and sixteen other colleges and Universities in the State of South Carolina) to recruit, train, certify and secure employment for minority males as elementary teachers in the public schools of South Carolina.

Procedures for admission to the Call Me MISTER Program are as follows:

1. Prior to seeking admission into the Call Me MISTER Program, applicants must have met the admission requirements of the college/university at which the degree and teaching certificate will be earned.
2. In addition to the application to the program (attached), the following items must be submitted:
 - A. High School Diploma and final transcript or General Education Development (GED) Certificate
 - B. Official copy of Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing (ACT) scores
 - C. Two letters of recommendation, one (1) from a teacher, guidance counselor or principal at the high school at which the diploma is earned, and one (1) from a person of the student's choice who can address the student's involvement in the community and/or potential for entering the teaching profession. The letter should be sent directly to the school.
 - D. An essay entitled "Why I Want to Teach," which will address the student's motivation for entering the teaching profession and the contributions he hopes to make to the profession and to the community as a teacher.
3. Following submission of the items above, an interview will be scheduled with prospective program participants to ascertain their potential for teaching and their motivations for participation in the program, as well as to provide an opportunity for clarification of any information submitted through the application process.
4. Commitment to Service
5. Apply early -Enrollment limited!
