Because the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is based on two year's prior income, the Financial Aid Office has the capability to use "Professional Judgment" to make adjustments when a student, spouse or parent experiences unusual circumstances which affect their current financial situation. Please review and indicate which Special Circumstance applies to you. Documentation listed as required must be submitted in order for the request to be considered. You may submit a signed federal tax return instead of the tax return transcript.

EXPLANATION OF SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES: All request(s) must include a detailed typed statement explaining the unusual circumstances. Provide all dates pertaining to the situation you are addressing. Also, include any information that will help us to better understand your particular situation.
