

Automotive Technology (GM-ASEP)

www.gvltec.edu/automotive

Contact:
(864) 250-8428

Visit Us:
McKinney Automotive Center
227 North Pleasantburg Drive
Greenville, SC 29607

Mailing Address:
MS 8011, P.O. Box 5616
Greenville, SC 29606

Do you enjoy cars and trucks, high-tech equipment, and hands-on activities? Find your future as a General Motors service technician. The General Motors Automotive Service Educational Program is a strategic alliance between GM, GM dealers, and carefully selected colleges. This two-year associate degree program will give you an academic foundation in math, electronics and analytics combined with advanced technical skills.

What you'll learn

- Engine Fundamentals
- Automotive Electricity
- Manual Drive Train/Axle
- Brakes
- Engine Reconditioning
- Ignition Systems
- Fuel Systems
- Suspension & Steering
- Automatic Transmission
- Automotive Air Conditioning

Curriculum

- Two-year associate degree program
- 75 credit hours can be completed in five semesters
- Scholarships and tuition assistance available to those who qualify

Program Options

- Automotive Service Training Program Associate Degree